Price: A Bottle of Wine!

The Official Newspaper of the
Bermuda International Light Tackle Tournament
19th - 24th June 2016

Yesterday was a break day but a number of teams opted to go out for fun, and they found some more nice size fish. And then in the evening we had the BBQ at Cindi's house. It was lovely that two contributors to the magazine – Sue Pearman and Crayton – come along for drinks. His daughter Lynn accompanied Crayton.

It is great to have Paula Finland here again, the last time she was at an event was in the early 90's. The ladies thought Danny's phone ring tone, a reel going off, was very funny. They were also seen eyeing up the jewelry, which is part of the raffles for Saturday at the prize presentation. Pelagic donated lots of useful items and one angler has his heart set on a pair of sunglasses they sent. We also have a gift certificate from Hamilton Princess, the co-coordinators need that one. Marine Locker donated a GoPro.

David returned a number 11 tag that he stole, sorry got misplaced in his bag. It was probably Scott's fault, as he was that number in 2012. Don't you love how we have all these records!

Stephen Crawford entertained us for the cocktail hour.

Fourways (MEF) provided another great dinner and an amazing profiterole tuna for dessert.

The kids were first to answer the call that dinner was ready, you can always count on them. Chef Racai did an excellent job of cooking all the food but especially the fish, kindly donated by the captains last night. There were only a few pieces left in the end. It was nice that some of them could join us as well. We seem to be mentioning food a lot in these tatlers, but then there has been something good every day – Monday's fish 'n' chips, Tuesday's dock food was fajitas, today was teppanyaki and tomorrow will be pasta.

Everybody headed home around 9.15pm as it was another early morning start.

And yes the editor was at her usual spot at 5.15am. Reel Anglers and Neil's rooms at Rosemont happen to face the car park so they can see when their rides arrive. Well not this morning, they were still having breakfast.

RA was still at Playmate by 5.30am. There was a bit of breeze today so Kevin should be happy that he could get a kite up.

Well mother nature decided to make us sweet a bit, and not from the heat but a few rain showers as we were trying to set up on the dock. In the end it turned out to be a lovely evening. As it was we had wait, Maverick stopped to fuel up! And didn't arrive till around 5.15pm, half an hour later than Tuesday. The Mitchell's couldn't catch a fish between them but Neil had a whopper yellowfin tuna. It weighed in at 65.9lb.

Next in was SHAC, they finally had a couple of fish to weigh after just releases on Tuesday. Nitin weighed a 19lb almaco jack and released a couple blackfin, Keith's blackfin tuna was right on the nose of 18lb, and he also released another one. He is no longer an ILTT virgin. Trevor also got blackfin release.

Philly For Rum also weighed 2 fish caught by Marty - a 26.7lb blackfin and 20.8lb barracuda. Peter managed to add a few more points to the team with a blackfin release.

BAC weighed 3 fish, but it seems only 2 made it on to the scoreboard. It will count toward club trophy points though. Kip had a 19.6lb wahoo and Mark a 61.4lb tuna, he also got a blackfin release. Your editor got him all excited by saying it was bigger than Neil's, sorry about that, can't keep track of it all.

The buzz on the dock was that this next team had a marlin release, was it a blue or white. They were all smiles coming in, and so they should have been, as they had 2 nice yellowfin to weigh. The verdict, a white! Yes the video was verified and there was a bit of a protest by Cindy as the date wasn't obvious. Please make sure we can clearly see the date when releasing. David's fish only weighed 64.3lb, which relieved Neil. Scott's fish was 1.1lb smaller.

Mama bear, Paula had to get a picture or two of her 2 boys with their big fish and Aron, with one A, was more than pleased with his marlin. It was a good day for all three, making the team second for the day. Ok enough, otherwise I'll be here all night and miss seeing them have breakfast again.

Of course BWT had to come in just after RA and Danny started his teasing by throwing a shirt at David. At the dinner last night David handled the extra shirt that Danny had bought and had to trade it in. Maybe he should have kept it for luck, although he has Bobby who caught 56.7lb wahoo and 52.9lb yellowfin, so probably doesn't need it. Anyway I'll leave you to watch the video I believe will be floating around digital space in the near future. Paul also got a yellowfin 53.9lb. The team were 3rd for the day but could possibly been 2nd. They get the good sportsmen award as 2 anglers were hooked a third came onto the kite and unfortunately the wrong angler touched the rod and tried to hand it off. Danny immediately said the fish had to be cut off.

Andrew Marshall and Mark were spotted carrying Neil's fish off, must have sold it whole.

Grandpa David S had a special visitor at the dock this evening, his grand daughter, but it was grandma Diane who kept her, he was probably a bit stinky.

Matthew Crumley the mate on Reel addiction was spotted wearing an ILTT shirt from 1997, along with his Goslings cool down towel. He is a past president of the club.

Why all the waffle? well the Mafia men only had releases today, so didn't get a picture and we had to wait 20 minutes for the next team, so figured you could wait too.

And the word around bar and food was that they had big fish. Well I guess it's not the size of your rod but how you use it!

And this new team definitely knows how. You can see the list of all the weights but the smallest 30.9lb caught by Craig and the biggest also caught by him was drum roll..... 66.8lb! Poor Neil! beaten by under a pound.

When it was mentioned that we could just use the same picture for each day as Craig had the largest fish on Tuesday, he went and got the rod he caught this fish on to have his picture taken. It was only a joke! All those fish made Niel high point rod for the day, beating out Craig and them top team for the day. WELL DONE!

Mark got his workout for the day, he has a bike race on Sunday morning.

Poor Team Overload isn't having any luck in getting those big fish. Wayne got the only release fish for the day. Then Mark decided he wanted to make sure they had their paper working in on time, before 6.30pm

Everybody enjoyed the food and booze while waiting for the results. I will let you read then yourselves as it's 11.25 and I still have to edit the pictures to go with stories.

If anybody has any pictures or video you would like to share with the editor and the rest of your anglers, yes we like to see what you get up to all day, then you can send them to bermudailtt@gmail.com via email or wetransfer.com

See you on the dock for the final day. Time for my bed at 12.45am
