First let me apologise to Andy, I left the d out of his name, he is now Any Pereira. That's what you get for writing at 2am. Nice to know that you are reading it. Also thank you to those who made it over to Cindi's for fish and chips, the general concensus where they were the best ever.

So the big news is the 50th ILTT commemorative magazine went out digitally last night and the feed back has been very positive:

This is an awesome magazine. It's obvious you put in a lot of time and research in producing the magazine. Do you have it in hard copy as well? Congrats on the 50th edition magazine. Lynda

If you haven't seen it check out our facebook page or website: bermudailtt.com
Thank you to all the people that contributed to it.

So everybody went fishing today, woo hoo, there wasn't a lick of breeze this morning, though there was a small shower mid morning. Team BAC probably had the earliest start, David and Kip had to get all the way from town to dockyard for a 5.30 leaving time. Mark opted to drive from Southampton. Your editor was at Rosemont for 5.15 to take Reel Anaglers over to Playmate, and while they were loading the car, Kevin showed up, so they filled his trunk up as well. What do they have in that box? If you want to see the team leaving the dock go to our facebook page or youtube.

The hard luck team of the day has to go to Team Overload who hit a rock this morning and bent their prop, luckily they made it back to dock and took David Ross' boat Pocket Change. Which is all they will have left after getting the boat fixed. He called Cindi at 10.48am to let her know what had happened. In the archives we just so happen to have an appropriate picture for them! I then got another call from him at 3.32pm to say that they were still hooked up and that he hadn't been able to reach any of the boats. I was sure that they would be last to the dock with a nice fish. Not so, they were the second team in with just one release going to Wayne.

SHAC didn't fair much better with Trevor also getting one release for the team, Cindi called Nitin to find out where they were and was told they weren't coming by boat but Keith was on his way with the forms. There is still 2 more days to go so there is still hope for you to win the trophy in a historic year, both teams are tied for last.

Well done, Wayne and Trevor, you broke your ILTT vaginity, sure you will perform better next time. Your turn will come Jorge and Keith when a nice fish gets turned on by your bait. Have a swizzle to keep you going.

No surprise who was the first team in was at around 4.45pm – Bait ‘n’ Switch. And they had some nice fish. Today they were a 2 man, sorry 2 person, team with Neil weighing 3 fish and Cindy 2. Cindy had an impressive 57.2lb yellowfin and Neil’s biggest was a 53.8 also yellowfin. Cindy was hopeful that she would have top fish for the day. Congratulations to Neil for being high point angler for the day and they were second overall. Who needs a 3rd angler.

The Portuguese Mafia men, everybody on the boat is Portuguese, came in third with a bunch of wahoo, well they were the Three Yahoo’s last time. Well done Ricky for also breaking your virginity and for getting the biggest fish on the team, a 33.6lb yellowfin and a 33.6 wahoo, he also got a 21.9lb almaco jack and released a blackfin tuna making him the top angler for the day in team, well done. And as you can see from the picture, they are T.P.M.

Reel Anglers didn’t want to show what they caught. It seems the fish preferred to be caught by a lady or she was the bait for Neil, as they fishing in the same area as Playmate, or maybe it’s that Aron is back or that Kevin cut his hair, or the full moon was last night, shall I go on with the excuses? Obviously they are keeping their box of tricks for another day. Yes Aron, I did see that your name is spelt wrong, I’m sure the stats men will change it by Saturday.

Next up was the best dressed team of the day, the Pelagic Playas on Wound Up. And they all lost their virginity today, with Craig having the biggest one of all, fish that is! He beat Cindy's by 2.3lb. Congratulation! Niel also got a 55.9lb, 46.7lb and a 31.5lb yellowfin to help him come in second for the day. Is it going to turn into the battle of Niel v Neil for top honours. Matthew's heaviest fish was a 26.7lb wahoo.

B.A.C were also a team that could only manage to weigh one fish between them, it was a 45.9lb yellowfin caught by Kip. Have to do better than that if you want keep the cup. David didn't you get to bed early enough last night or maybe it was the shirt.

After everybody had left Kip went to get his bag and realised Mark had taken the wrong one, as he was heading back to Dockyard with Craigin. Luckily they were only at 2 rock when they had to turn around as the bag had Mark's car keys in them. Good thing they have name tags on.

Well what can we say about this next team except Bobby is BACK! It is wonderful that you and Danny get to fish the 50th and Danny's 21st, champagne all round. And yes another virgin, Paul Fox, who was the designated third angler today, lost his ILTT v card with a 55.2lb yellowfin, 29lb blackfin, 25.8lb wahoo, making him 4th place for the day and managed to beat his dad, who also got 3 fish but not as big. Maybe you should fish the rest of the week.

Last to weigh-in was Philly For Rum with Eric getting a 29.5lb wahoo and a 19.8lb barracuda. Peter weighted the smallest fish today a 19.1lb almaco jack. Peter didn't want to carry that cuda to close to himself. They were saving themselves for tomorrow when they are going to try and catch world record fish. It is good to see you again Marty, you must have brought the good weather with you, thanks. Sorry you didn't get a chance to fish Adam, but it was nice to see you on the dock today.

A full list on today results is posted at the end. And before you all cry it was the 1st day of fishing, it was easier to enter under day 2 than confuse the computer program, we know how you all get about your how big your points are. In a nut shell, Bermuda Water Tours are top for the day with Bait 'n' Switch in 2nd and newcomers Pelagic Playas in 3rd.

Once again to Fourways for providing great food, Pavillion for the large tent and Island Glass for the smaller one, it was nice for everybody to get out of the sun and Goslings for the swizzle, corona, bud light and waters and the anglers really enjoyed their cold wet towels.

I would also like to thank Steve Richards for taking over stats, with help from Francis, from Steven Antonion who did for years and isn't very well at the moment. We wish you a speed recover and hope you can make to the dock one day. And thank you to all the volunteers on the dock.

Tomorrow is the BBQ at Cindi's house from 6pm. Thank you to all the boats that were able to give us a fish, I know it is tough with only one day. We all appreciate it. Also please let Cindi know if you are coming to the prize presentation at Blu if you, and how many, if you haven't already.

Tight lines for those going out to play on the water tomorrow.
